

Times of Refreshing

"Those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed." Proverbs 11:25b

Renew: make new again. Refresh: make fresh again.
ReCreate: create again.

The incredible message and paradox of Easter resonates deep in the hearts of all who believe. The horrors of what Jesus suffered and sacrificed, shown through the incredible events of Holy Week, became the foundation of forgiveness and eternal life for all who believe in Him. Jesus died, Jesus rose and Jesus lives, bringing us the daily invitation to be renewed, refreshed and recreated to walk in this dynamic faith.

Even the seasons rejoice in a time of refreshing. All around Green Lake Conference Center we see exciting evidence of things being made new again. The valuable refurbishing work on Roger Williams Inn continues with all new plumbing; Staughton Hall (formerly Lakeview Meeting Room) is nearing completion; and the roofs, windows and siding on the barns by the front gates have been restored.

During the week of August 4-11, 2019 you are invited to celebrate the 75th anniversary of Green Lake Conference Center. The family is coming for a reunion and we need to get prepared! Our focus is on updating and refreshing Kern Lodge (built in 1995) and Bauer Lodge (built in 1998). The 'To Do' list includes new paint, linens, bedspreads and lamps; a fresh look for the lounges on each floor; the ReCreation of sound and audio-visual components in the meeting rooms; and the renewal of lobbies.

Come join in this time of refreshing that is sweeping across Green Lake Conference Center. We are surrounded by the 'great cloud of witnesses' who have gone before, and we thank God for them. It is our time to get everything prepared for those who are coming to experience 'a closer walk with God' and a time of renewing, refreshing and ReCreation.
